DAR School Representative--congratulations to Jarrett Cartmill for being selected as Rose Hill Christian School's recipient of the Daughters of the American Revolution's Good Citizen Award. Selection by faculty was based on the DAR's stated qualities of dependability, service, leadership and patriotism. Jarrett's school entry will be considered for further recognition involving representatives from other area high schools later in this school year.

Kentucky Governor's School for the Arts

The application window is currently open for the 2018 summer program. Students must currently be a sophomore or junior in a Kentucky high school to apply. Areas of discipline include: Architecture & Design, Creative Writing, Dance, Drama, Film & Photography, Instrumental Music, Musical Theatre, Visual Art and Vocal Music. For complete information and an application go to <https://app.getacceptd.com/kentuckycentergsa> by January 12.

There are state-wide ArtsShops available, with the nearest in Morehead on November 11. To read about these special opportunities go to <http://www.kentuckycenter.org/education-community-arts/gsa/prospective-students/artshop>.

FAFSA Reminder

October 1 began the window for seniors to complete their FAFSA. All students who plan to attend a post-secondary institution in the fall should submit a FAFSA to see if you qualify for financial aid for college. Go to www.fafsa.gov, and complete the form for the school year 2018-2019.

Rogers Scholars Application Window Open

Sophomores are welcome to go to the website of the Center for Rural Development to check out the application process for the 2018 Rogers Scholars Program. This prestigious program is held in the summer with students from Eastern Kentucky participating. It is a leadership development program as well as a scholarship program, with students who participate, gaining eligibility for scholarships to Kentucky schools. A representative will be talking with sophomores in November here during the school day. Go to <http://centeryouthprograms.com/rogers-scholars/apply>.
